

2013 StreetFood Vancouver Society ("SVS") Member Requirements

The following is a list of expectations and requirements of membership in SVS. By signing this document and paying your annual dues you agree to abide by these expectations.

Membership Requirements

1. All members are expected to be active in their Society. It is the mandate and mission of the SVS to:

"To encourage the promotion and increased cultural and community exposure of Street Food in Vancouver. To serve the members and public by providing a collective resource, uniting in a common voice, and by maintaining the utmost in quality and integrity for the food and people we serve."

2. Wherever possible, members are expected to attend (quarterly) regular and extraordinary meetings as set by the Board of Directors.

3. Actively participate in committees and events as set by the SVS. Inform the Board (and members) of issues important and relevant to the Society.

4. Pay annual membership dues as determined on a yearly basis.

5. Inform the Secretary (or alternately, a member of the Board) of your Proxy by written notification.

6. Agree to pay a maximum of 10% of gross sales to participate in new events. Members may pay a greater percentage of sales to participate in existing events that have a history of charging a higher rate. Charity events do not apply to this rule.

7. Maintain a clean and presentable vending unit.

8. Follow and abide by all health and safety codes. Members that have been shut down by VCH more than twice will be expelled;

9. Be good "ambassadors" to the general public and tourists

10. Send media inquiries to the board where media is seeking the opinion of SVS as a representative voice of its members

11. Use compostable and/or biodegradable packaging, cutlery and cups (styrofoam and hard plastic shall not be used).
